and I schal reyse it. þ^t^ oþir me seke þe lord: & alle folkis on whi che my name is clepid to helpe. þe lord doynge þis þing seyþ/ fro þe world þe werk of þe lord is knowin to þe lord/ for which þing I deme hem þ^t^ of heyen me ben co uertid to god to be not diseslid but to write to hem: þ^t^ þei abstey ne hem fro defoulingis of mawme tis. & fro fornycacioun. & strang lid þingis & blood/ for moyses of elde tymes hap in alle citees. hem þ^t^ preche him in synagogis: where by ech sabot he is red/ þanne it pleside to þe apostlis & to þe el dre men with alle þe chirche: to chese men of hem. & sende to antio che with poul & barnabas/ Iudas þ^t^ was named barsabas. & silas þe firste men among brynen & writ ten bi þe hondis of hem/ apostlis & eldre brynen to hem þ^t^ ben at an tioche & syrie & silice. brynen of hem þe men: greetinge/ for we her den þ^t^ sum went out fro us.
& troubledē zou with wordis & t^o^ nedē vp sodoun zour soulis to which men we comaundidē not it pleside to us gaderid into con to chese men & sende to zou with oure moost dereworþe barna bas & poul/ men þ^t^ zauen her liy ues: for þe name of our lord ihū crist/ þer fore we sentē Iudas & silas. & þei schulē telle þe same þingis to zou by wordis/ for it is seyn to þe holy goost & to us to putte to zou no þing more of char ge þan þes nedeful þingis: þ^t^ ze abstey ne zou fro þe offrid. þin gis of mawmetis. & blood strā glid & fornycacioun/ fro which ze keping zou: schulē do wel/ far ze wel/ þ^t^ fore þei werē let go & cumē doun to antioche: & whē þe multitude was gederid: þei to ken þe epistle. which which whā þei haddē red: þei ioyedē on þe counfort/ & Iudas & silas. & þei for þei werē prophetis: counfortidē brynerē & cōfermyden with fil many wordis/ but after þ^t^ þei hadden be þere a litil while: þei werē let go of brynen with pees to hem þat hadden sent hem/ but it was seyn to silas: to dise lle þei/ & Iudas went aloone to ierusalem/ & poul & barnabas dwel tē at antioche. techinge & þ^t^chinge þe word of þe lord. with oþe ma nye/ but after sum dayes: poul seide to barnabas/ t^o^ we azen & visite brynen by alle citees i which we han prechid þe word of þe lord: hou þei hā hem/ & barna bas wolde take with him iohn: þ^t^ was named markus/ but poul preiede him. þ^t^ he þ^t^ departide fro hem fro pamfilie. & wente not w^t^ hem into þe werk: schulde not be resseyued/ & dissencioun was mad. so þ^t^ þei departidē at wynyn/ & barnabas took mark & cam by boot to cypre/ and poul chees silas & went forp fro þe brynen en. & was bitakin to þe grace of god. & he went by syrie & cilice.

& cōfermyde þe chirche: comaū dinge to kepe þe heestis of apos tlis & eldre men/ ¶ C^iii^ fol. 47^vi^

And he cam into derben & lis tram/ & lo a disciple was þer bi name thymothe þe sone of a Iewesse cristē & of þe fadir heyen/ & brynen þ^t^ werē